ORDER

J. PAUL OETKEN, District Judge:

On September 25, 2018, the parties notified the Court of their desire to settle this Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”) case, and they submitted a proposed settlement for the Court’s approval. (Dkt. No. 51.) In a November 6, 2018, opinion and order, the Court considered whether the proposed settlement terms were fair and reasonable under Cheeks v. Freeport Pancake House, Inc., 796 F.3d 199 (2d Cir. 2015), and rejected the parties’ initial proposal on the grounds that its release and non-disparagement provisions were overly broad. (Dkt. No. 52.)

The parties have now submitted a revised settlement agreement that remedies the initial proposal’s deficiencies. (Dkt. No. 53.) Having carefully reviewed the terms of the revised settlement, the Court concludes that they are fair and reasonable.

To that end, the proposed settlement at Docket Number 53 is approved, and the case is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. The Court shall retain jurisdiction solely to resolve any disputes arising from the settlement agreement and the settlement of this action.

The Clerk of Court is directed to close the case.

SO ORDERED.
